The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by any and all of Hurley et al. 6820743; O'Malley 7237675; Gray et al. 1967026; Read 1960279.

All of the above references teach racks for horizontally supporting and storing at least three bottles comprising a surface of the rack having an upper relief configuration which defines at least one set of compartments configured to accept a bottle in each compartment such that when a plurality of racks are stacked over each other, bottles on a lower rack are enclosed by the lower relief configuration of an upper rack and the upper relief configuration of the lower rack.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon at this time is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure and is cited on the attached PTO 893.
